

THE Cooking Studio

FORT COLLINS

On-Site Team Building & Cooking Competitions

Overview

Team events take place in our teaching kitchens in Suite 130 on the main floor of the Opera Galleria in Old Town Fort Collins. Classes are designed to include everyone, and everyone cooks and eats no matter their age and capability. Our mission to provide an encouraging environment for anyone who wants to improve their cooking skills.

Health & Safety: We're certificated as a 5-Star (Level Up) business by the Health Department and are following their guidelines for safety of both customers, staff and food service.

What's included:

- ✓ Recipe packets to use in class and take home
- ✓ Chef instruction on recipes, culinary skills, and cooking techniques
- ✓ All food, cooking tools & other equipment
- ✓ Everyone eats the meal prepared
- ✓ Wine and Beer can be served and are paid for at the time of service or after the event. Please let us know when registering if you want to have wine and beer available

Competition options:

We LOVE doing friendly cooking competitions. You determine a menu in collaboration with the Chef and the Chef chooses a secret ingredient. The competitions can be structured as a 'guided competition' where recipes are used by everyone and the Chefs help each team as needed (most popular), or you can compete without recipes where the Chef is available for consultation only (advanced cooks only for this option). Awards are given for the Best Presentation, Best Use of the Secret Ingredient and Best Overall.

Number attending*	Price
0 - 8 people	$650
